

Aventis Systems® Sponsors the Health I.T. Leadership Summit for the Second Year

ATLANTA, Georgia – December 6, 2012 – Over 400 healthcare I.T. professionals, notable community leaders, and eager attendees recently gathered at the beautiful Fox Theater, in Midtown Atlanta, to attend the third annual Health I.T. Leadership Summit. The three key topics of this year's event included the future, transformation, and innovation in the healthcare space. Atlanta is the perfect location to host such a prestigious event. Recently, the city was recognized as the Health I.T. capital of the United States, boasting more than 247 healthcare companies.

This exciting event featured an expansive exhibitor's hall and fantastic networking opportunities, in addition to panel discussions and keynotes from top industry experts. This year's keynote speaker was Lee Aase, Director of the Mayo Clinic's Center for Social Media. Aase gave an invigorating presentation regarding the Mayo Clinic's successful use of social media in helping patients and improving healthcare. Attendees were also fortunate to hear from Ross Mason, Chairman of the Georgia Department of Community Health Board. Mason discussed the healthcare landscape within the state of Georgia and presented bright predictions for the future.

Aventis Systems was a Gold Event Sponsor of the Health I.T. Leadership Summit for the second year in a row. As a sponsor, the Company was afforded the opportunity not only to learn more about the emerging I.T. trends, but also introduce notable panelist, Justin Barnes, of Greenway Medical. In addition, Aventis Systems was able to showcase its products, warranties, and on-site services. With such a robust line-up of offerings, Aventis Systems is perfectly positioned to be an I.T. leader within the healthcare vertical. The Company completely stands behind its quality products, which is why it provides warranties that can be extended to six years and on-site service options that allow for an engineer to be on-site in a matter of hours. "We strive to bring the best-in-class healthcare solutions to companies across the nation," said Karl Pearl, Vice President of Aventis Systems. "This event enables us to bring our robust offerings to regional healthcare leaders each year."

About the Health I.T. Leadership Summit

The Health I.T. Leadership Summit brings together local, regional, and national leaders in the health I.T. industry to address the issues essential to industry growth. The 2012 Summit addressed meeting future healthcare needs through the use of innovative approaches and technologies to improve the population's health, and the quality and cost of healthcare. The 2012 Health I.T. Leadership brought together a sell-out crowd of more than 600 business leaders, healthcare providers, and public and private organizations. The Summit ranks as one of the nation's premier healthcare events. www.tagonline.org/Health-IT-Leadership-Summit.php.
